

lives of tomorrow's citizens. Help them to toss aside personal axes they are tempted to grind in favor of the common good. Burden them with a sense of high regard for the life of every human being in Maryland who calls himself citizen.

Accept this prayer, O God, for the good of the State and for the sake of the future, in the name of Christ, our Lord. Amen.

THE PRESIDENT: Thank you.

Roll call.

(Whereupon, the roll call was taken.)

Has every delegate answered roll call? For what purpose does Delegate Clagett rise?

DELEGATE CLAGETT: Mr. Chairman, a point of personal privilege.

THE PRESIDENT: State your privilege.

DELEGATE CLAGETT: Today by the calendar is November 15, 1967. It happens to be also the first day, or the opening day of the quail and rabbit season in this State.

For the first time in twenty years I find myself in the position of not being able to check those natural resources personally. I am only grateful that we have placed it in the hands of the Constitution and of the State.

(Applause.)

THE PRESIDENT: Has every delegate answered roll call? The Clerk will record the roll call.

There being a quorum present, the Convention is in session.

The Chair recognizes Delegate Powers, Chairman of the Committee on Calendar and Agenda.

DELEGATE POWERS: Mr. President, I move the adoption of today's Agenda.

THE PRESIDENT: Is there a second?

(Whereupon, the motion was duly seconded.)

All in favor, signify by saying Aye; contrary, No. The Ayes have it. It is so ordered.

Delegate Boileau.

DELEGATE BOILEAU: I think my button has been exchanged for the Governor's button. It is not working. I was not recorded on the roll call.

THE PRESIDENT: Delegate Boileau will be recorded as present.

Reports of other standing committees?

(There was no response.)

Formal report of the Committee of the Whole, Report No. 4. The Clerk will read the record.

READING CLERK: Report of the Committee of the Whole, No. 4. This report covers matters in General Order No. 3:

A Report on Committee Recommendation LB-1, Legislative Power, composition of the Legislature, Qualifications of Legislators, Election of Legislators, Elective Sessions and Compensation of Legislators.

THE PRESIDENT: The report has heretofore been referred to the Committee on Style, Drafting and Arrangement.

Attached to this report, in accordance with the practice, is a copy of Committee Recommendation LB-1, so marked, with string-outs in italics to show the changes which were made by amendments.

Committee Report R&C-13. The Clerk will read the report.

READING CLERK: Committee Report R&C-13, by the Committee on Rules, Credentials and Convention Budget, Alfred L. Scanlan, Chairman: A Report regarding a proposed amendment to Rule 36 [38]* of the Standing Rules of the Convention.

THE PRESIDENT: The report is referred to the Committee on Calendar and Agenda.

Are there any other reports? Any motions or resolutions?

(There was no response.)

If not, the Chair recognizes Delegate Powers.

DELEGATE POWERS: Mr. President, I move the Convention resolve itself into the Committee of the Whole for the purpose of considering the orders of the day, in accordance with the Debate Schedules No. 3 and 4 for control and limitation of debate.

THE PRESIDENT: Is there a second?

(Whereupon, the motion was duly seconded.)
